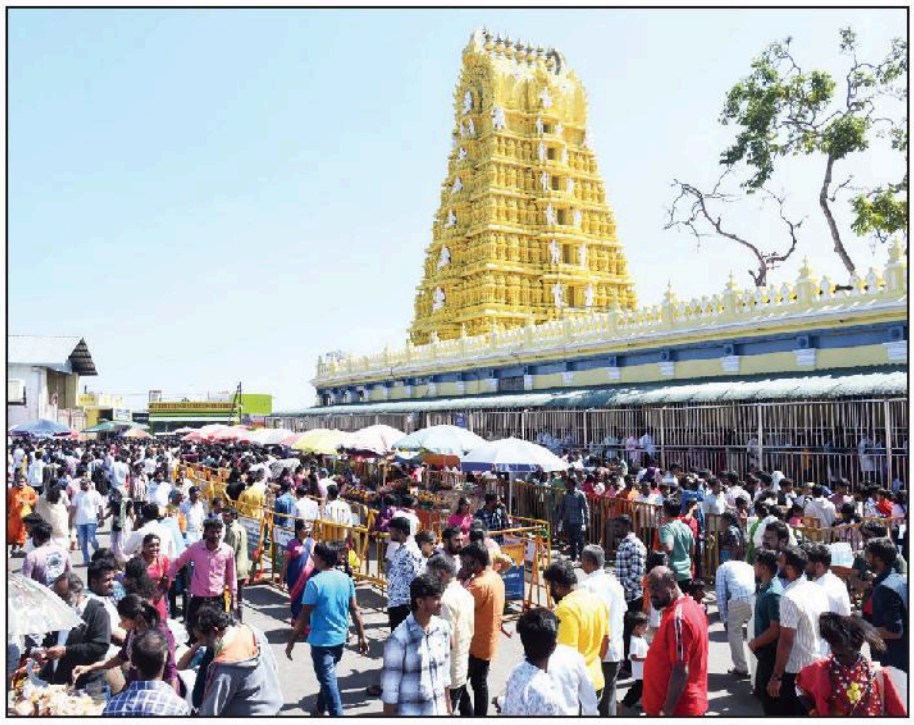
Devotees throng temples on New Year Day

Mysureans welcome 2025 with peaceful celebrations ▶ Two lakh laddus distributed at Sri Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple



Thousands of devotees at Sri Chamundeshwari Temple (pic. left) atop Chamundi Hill and Sri Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple in Vijayanagar this morning.

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (RK, MTY, GA, VNS & BCT)- Thousands of devotees and tourists flocked popular temples across Mysuru to seek blessings of the presiding deities on day one of New Year-2025. Devotees began queuing up as early as 6 am near Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple for the first darshan of the deity.

The temple authorities organised separate queues for women, men, senior citizens, and specially-abled devotees to facilitate entry. As announced, the temple distributed laddus and puliyogare to devotees. Long queues stretched up to a kilometre from the temple premises, with devotees patiently waiting to reach the sanctum sanctorum.

Sri Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple distributed 35,000 laddus to devotees by noon, with plans to distribute a total of two lakh laddus by evening.

Earlier, puja rituals commenced at 4.30 am with Thomale Seve, followed by Swarnapushpa Sahasranama and a procession of Utsavamurthy around the temple premises.

Similarly, Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill witnessed a massive influx of devotees. Despite having both special and normal darshan options, long queues had formed, with many waiting for hours to seek blessings.

In addition to the lengthy queues inside the Temple complex, the surrounding areas and roads experienced severe traffic congestion as hundreds of vehicles lined up the Hill to have a darshan of the Goddess.

KR Police and Siddarthanagar Traffic Police were deployed to manage vehicular movements. Not limiting themselves to Chamundi Hill, devotees also thronged the nearby Goddess Jwalamukhi Tripurasundari Devi Temple in Uttanahalli after seeking the blessings of Goddess Chamundeshwari.

Devotees were also seen visiting Sri Lakshmi Venkataramaswamy Temple in Vontikoppal, Sri Datta Venkateshwara Swamy Temple at Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram, and other temples across the city.

Row over renaming Princess Road as 'Siddaramaiah Arogya Marga'

Former Mayor cites 1921 map as proof

Cong. Spokesperson says there is no proof

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (GA&DM)- Even as Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff clarified to a Congress delegation yesterday that no official record or Gazette notification identifying 'Princess Road' (KRS Road, now proposed to be renamed as Siddaramaiah Aarogya Marga,) former city Mayor Sandesh Swamy produced a map as evidence to assert that the road was indeed named 'Princess Road.'

Sandesh Swamy

Presenting this proof, Sandesh Swamy urged Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to intervene and put an end to the contentious issue of renaming the road after him.

At a press conference yesterday, Swamy displayed the map, stating that road had been officially named 'Princess Road' in 1921 by the then City Improvement Trust Board (CITB), which later became the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA).

Mysuru, Jan.1 (BLU&DM)- A day after former Mayor Sandesh Swamy produced a map as evidence to assert that KRS Road was indeed named as 'Princess Road', KPCC Spokesperson M. Lakshmana said that there is no mention of Princess Road in Mysuru City Corporation records.

Lakshmana

Addressing a press meet at Congress Bhavan here this morning, he said, "It was renamed KRS Road in 1931. This is recorded in Deputy Commissioner's Office. We will name it after Siddaramaiah, come what may. A proposal will be sent to the Government for implementation if the records are available."

'Duplicate' titular head

Lakshmana made personal remarks at Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar (who had opposed the renaming of the road) and called Yaduveer as a 'duplicate' titular head of the erstwhile Mysore royal family.

CISF sets up Internal Quality Control Unit at 68 airports

New Delhi, Jan. 1 (OSR)- The Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) has taken a significant stride in bolstering aviation security by establishing an Internal Quality Control Unit (IQCU) for its Aviation Security Group (ASG) deployed at 68 airports across India.

The IQCU will play a pivotal role in implementing world-class security procedures and integrating advanced technology. This initiative aligns with the National Civil Aviation Security Quality Control Programme-2024 (NCASQCP), issued by the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS), and the Aircraft (Security) Rules-2023.

The IQCU will operate under the Aviation Security Control Centre (ASCC), inaugurated by Union Home Minister Amit Shah on July 22, 2023.

Equipped with cutting-edge components such as the Incident Management Centre, Aviation Research and Data Centre and Centralised Communication Control Centre, the ASCC will collaborate with the IQCU to address evolving security challenges and strengthen the security framework at Indian airports. The system will also extend coverage to airports under the Regional Connectivity Scheme (UDAAN).

Led by a senior CISF Officer and a team of certified Aviation Security (AVSEC) instructors, national auditors and experienced personnel, the IQCU will focus on:

• Standardisation of procedures: Ensuring consistent security protocols across all airports through uniform training and evaluation methods.

• Technological advancement: Advocating the adoption of new technologies through field trials and alignment with international best practices.

• Internal audits: Conducting inspections and audits in compliance with ICAO/BCAS guidelines to assess security operations and recommend improvements.

• Quality control monitoring: Reviewing and updating security protocols to ensure compliance, technological efficacy, and operational efficiency.

• Feedback analysis: Collecting and analysing feedback from ASGs as per International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO), BCAS, and NCASQCP standards to identify gaps and enhance performance.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

SERVICE TO GOD, DEVOTEES: Parents will love and affectionately care for their children however they may be. Even for a crow, her chick is golden. The sweet strains from the pipe and yazh (an ancient stringed instrument) cannot stand compared to the sweetness of the rare music in children's prattle of soft and mellifluous word flow (kuzhal inidhu yazh inidhu — kural 66). Thanneerpalli Sri Krishnan Swamy said in a discourse that we are all God's children, and He is ever willing to extend His blessings.

Lord Krishna says there are four types of people: the distressed, the seekers of knowledge, the wealth seekers, and the men of knowledge (chaturvidha: bhajante — chapter 7 sloka 16). Of all kinds of men, those who pray with sincere devotion and seek nothing in return except rendering service to Him are called the true devotees. It is good to render pujas to Lord Vishnu, and it is still better to extend service to the Lord's devotees, which makes Him merrier. Those who pray with the sole aim of attaining liberation are known as jnanis. Lord says He is very dear to such jnanis, and they are also dear to Him.

In the eighth pasuram of Tiruppavai, Andal emphasises unique concepts. She wakes up her friends to worship Lord Narayana, the chief of all celestials. To live happily here and attain the ultimate moksha hereafter, enjoying the divine bliss in the realm of His world permanently, people should serve God and His devotees. It is said that when people go to various places of worship, it is better to go with the devotees of God (bhagavathas), through whom the Lord is very pleased. Sri Andal has exhibited this through her own conduct to set an example for us. — In The Hindu

Popcorn sold as edible cushion material

Tokyo: A company has come up with the genius idea of selling plastic bags of popcorn as an edible alternative to conventional cushioning materials like styrofoam pellets and cardboard. Azechi Foods, a popcorn manufacturer and delicacy wholesaler in Japan's Kochi City, has become famous for using and selling popcorn not just as a snack but as a cushioning material. Company's manager Shihoko Wada, had been struggling to promote popcorn on the Azechi Foods online store where people mainly bought delicacies when she was inspired by a laptop repair technician at a management seminar. The man used Umaibo sticks (cylindrical puffed corn snacks) as a cushioning material and while some in attendance found it funny, for Wada it was a revelation. Not only could the popcorn be used as an actual snack after use, but it was also an incredible opportunity to attract attention.

Missing dog returns home, rings doorbell

Tallahassee: A Florida family's dog, missing for nearly 10 days, returned home for the holidays and rang her family's doorbell about 2.30 am.

Green Cove Springs resident Brooke Comer said her family's 4-year-old German Shepherd mix, Athena, went missing on Dec. 15 and the neighbourhood rallied to try to find her.

Comer said Athena brought herself home in what she described to First Coast News as "a Christmas miracle." "It was about 2:30 am. She came pawing at the door, ringing the doorbell, " Comer said.

Comer shared her own doorbell camera footage, showing Athena scratching at the door and jumping up on her hind legs to ring the bell.

Maintain cleanliness inside Manasagangothri campus

Sir,

I am an alumnus of the University of Mysore (1987 batch), currently residing in Mysuru. As a former student of the Department of Geography, I hold a deep sense of pride and connection with our University and visit the sprawling Manasagangothri campus daily for my morning walks.

The serene, lush environment of the University, spanning approximately 750 acres, including the Kukkarahalli Lake, is truly a blessing. It offers clean air, rich biodiversity with trees, birds, and animals, and serves as a peaceful retreat from the city's hustle and bustle.

This beautiful campus, shaped by visionaries like the former Vice-Chancellor and Rashtrakavi Kuvempu, is not just a heritage site but a sanctuary for the community, including retired professors, students and local residents. However, it is disheartening to observe issues that threaten the environment and sanctity of the campus:

• Plastic and garbage: Increasing amounts of plastic waste and roadside litter, including alcohol bottles, are particularly visible around the Buddha statue area, often left behind after student celebrations.

• Street dogs: The campus is home to a significant number of stray dogs (approximately 50-60), raising safety concerns.

• Lack of garbage bins: Insufficient waste disposal facilities, especially near student hostels, lead to improper waste management.

Suggestions for improvement:

1. Garbage disposal: Install separate garbage bins for wet and recyclable waste across the campus, particularly near hostels and high-activity areas.

2. Awareness campaigns: Launch initiatives to educate students about maintaining cleanliness and protecting the environment. Faculty members can contribute by counselling students on these issues.

3. Plastic and alcohol-free zone: Implement clear guidelines to make the campus plastic-free and alcohol-free, with proper enforcement.

4. Monthly inspections: Organise monthly campus walks for the administration to personally observe and address concerns.

5. Stray dog management: Adopt humane measures to control the stray dog population, ensuring the safety of everyone on campus.

I firmly believe these steps will help restore the campus to its former glory, creating an environment that reflects the values and legacy of our University.

Boost to semiconductor manufacturing in Mysuru

Silectric Semiconductor to invest Rs. 3,425 crore at Kochanahalli

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (BLU&BCT)- Chennai-based Silectric Semiconductor Manufacturing Pvt Ltd, established by directors of Zoho, is set to invest Rs. 3,425.60 crore in Karnataka's first electronics manufacturing cluster at Kochanahalli near Nanjangud, Mysuru. This venture is projected to create 460 jobs and will be set up on a 40-acre site.

The 64th State High-Level Clearance Committee (SHLCC), chaired by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, recently approved 10 proposals across various industrial sectors worth a total of Rs. 9,823 crore, which are expected to generate 5,605 jobs.

During the meeting, Siddaramaiah announced that the first semiconductor project in the State would be established at the Kochanahalli Electronics Manufacturing Cluster.

The Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) has earmarked 234 acres at Kochanahalli, near Kadakola, for the electronics manufacturing cluster (EMC) and semiconductor units. The Government plans to introduce a new Electronics System Design and Manufacturing (ESDM) policy to attract further investments.

234.67-acre cluster

The 234.67-acre cluster includes infrastructure such as internal plots, parks, wide roads, and sewage treatment plants (STPs), with 140 acres specifically reserved for the semiconductor park.

Although the construction of the semiconductor park at Kochanahalli was completed a year ago, no companies had established operations there. Many semiconductor firms were heading to Gujarat due to the State's attractive incentives and favourable policies.

Amidst this, Silectric Semiconductor's investment marks a significant breakthrough. Mysuru-based Kaynes Technology and other companies have also signed agreements with the State Government to invest in this cluster. This indicates that the entire 140-acre area in Kochanahalli will soon house multiple semiconductor companies.

The establishment of these semiconductor companies is expected to generate local employment opportunities and attract skilled professionals from other States. This influx will boost the rental housing market and stimulate commercial activities in Mysuru. Previously, India relied heavily on semiconductor imports from countries like China, which increased the cost of electronic items such as mobile phones and computers. With domestic semiconductor manufacturing, these products are anticipated to become more affordable for consumers.

ASHA workers stage protest demanding hike in honorarium

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (GA&DM)-Seeking a hike in monthly honorarium and fulfilment of their other demands, ASHA (Accredited Social Health Activist) workers under the banner of AIUTUC affiliated 'Karnataka Rajya Samyukta ASHA Workers Association' staged a demonstration near the Deputy Commissioner's Office on Bannur Road, Siddarthanagar here yesterday.

Maintaining that ASHA workers, who are community health workers, were doing multiple healthcare-related works, the protesters alleged that the Government was exploiting them by not paying them in accordance with their duties. Noting that they were battling issues concerning ASHA funds-based wage payment system for over eight years, they contended that the Government was apathetic to their problems and plight.

Stating that the Government received appreciation from the Centre because of the efforts and service of ASHA workers, the protesters said, however, both the Union and State Governments were hesitant to hike wages. "The Government must announce a monthly honorarium of Rs. 15,000 to all ASHA workers and urban ASHA workers must be given an additional Rs. 2,000 taking note of the additional work and high cost of urban living and other expenses involved," they urged. AIUTUC State Vice-President Umadevi and other office-bearers were present.

Liquor party atop Chamundi Hill irks devotees

Tourists throw empty bottles at Taraka Backwaters

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (BLU&KS)-Youths consuming liquor after parking their vehicles on the side of the road atop Chamundi Hill in broad daylight has irked devotees coming to the Hill Temple.

It is learnt that a group of five to six youths, who parked their car on the roadside near the View Point, sat on the retaining wall and consumed liquor. This is the road used by hundreds of devotees to go to the Hill Temple and despite seeing the devotees passing by, the youths did not care and continued to consume liquor and smoke cigarettes thus desecrating the religious sanctity of Chamundi Hill.

Also, youths are found partying on the stretch of the road leading to Uttanahalli from atop the Hill. To prevent such activities, Police have commenced patrolling. As the Police do not patrol in a few places in the vicinity of the Hill, the youths are indulging in merry-making by consuming liquor in such places.

At Taraka Backwaters

Tourists visiting Taraka Backwaters near H.D. Kote are also indulging in consuming liquor which is evident from empty liquor bottles strewn around the backwaters. Tourists coming from many places including Bengaluru and Kerala in their vehicles, switch on the music systems, increase the volume and indulge in consuming liquor and dance at the backwaters besides breaking glass bottles in drunken stupor.

This place, which comes under National Tiger Project, is now filled with empty liquor bottles and the tourists, after consuming liquor are also throwing empty bottles into the river. Broken glass bottles are even found on the river bed, which is posing danger to many wild animals which come to the backwaters to quench their thirst. It is high time the authorities concerned take strict measures to prevent partying in wildlife sensitive zones.

Car damaged in fire

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (SBD&KS)-Fire has damaged the engine of a Tata Indica car, which was parked on New Kantharaj Urs road in Saraswathipuram here yesterday night.

The car (KA-01-MJ-6148) belonging to one Vinay Kumar of J.P. Nagar was parked on the roadside when smoke was noticed from the engine. Within seconds, fire engulfed the engine and the public immediately informed the nearby Saraswathipuram Fire Station.

Fire and Emergency Services personnel, who rushed to the spot doused the fire and prevented it from spreading further.

But the fire had damaged the engine by then. Fire personnel said that the car may have caught fire due to overheat in the engine.

It may be recalled that last Saturday, a car, belonging to one Vibha of Dattagalli, which was parked in front of a hotel on the 3rd Cross in VV Mohalla, was completely gutted in a fire and the reason for the car catching fire is still not known.

Devotees throng temples; 2 lakh laddus distributed

Large numbers of devotees were present at Srikanteshwara Swamy in Nanjangud, Sri Ranganatha Swamy Temple, Goddess Nimishamba Temple in Srirangapatna and the Sri Male Mahadeshwara Swamy Temple atop Male Mahadeshwara Hills in Chamarajanagar.

Police had made extensive security arrangements at popular temple sites both within the city and its outskirts to ensure the safety and smooth flow of devotees and prevent any untoward incidents.

On New Year's Eve, one minor incident was reported at V.V. Puram Traffic Police Station limits where a vehicle suffered minor damages.

Meanwhile, last year two 22-year-old Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) students, Sampath and Vrithik Dharani, lost their lives at 2.15 am in an accident on Chaduranga Road (Hunsur Road and SJCE Road Junction) after their speeding bike collided with an SUV.

Additionally, 19-year-old Mahin Singh, an MBBS student, and 20-year-old Arnav, an engineering student, were killed in another accident at 3.15 am on Jan. 1, 2024, on the outskirts of Mysuru near Srirangapatna when their speeding SUV collided with a car.

The New Year's Eve remained largely peaceful as the Mysuru City Police increased security and maintained a strong presence on the roads. Senior officers and staff from various Police Stations conducted regular patrols and checked motorists at vantage points.

Party-goers quietly made their way home after celebrations at hotels, resorts, clubs and other venues, which concluded by 1 am as directed by the Police. Guests started vacating their hotel rooms and were headed for their hometowns. As the New Year fell midweek, many employees had to report to their offices today.

Sandesh Swamy remarked that the ongoing controversy surrounding the renaming of KRS Road as 'Siddaramaiah Aarogya Marga' might have caused unnecessary embarrassment to the Chief Minister, who hails from the Mysuru district.

He said that the MCC had decided to honour Siddaramaiah with a civic honour when he became Chief Minister for the first time in 2013, but Siddaramaiah had humbly declined the gesture. Now, as Siddaramaiah serves as Chief Minister for the second time, he should intervene to resolve the ongoing controversy over naming KRS Road after him.

Do not bypass norms

Pointing out that no one should attempt to tarnish Siddaramaiah's reputation, he emphasised that it is a tradition to name prominent roads, parks, and circles after achievers from various fields and distinguished personalities.

However, he stressed that such processes must adhere to established norms, with the MCC Council passing a resolution for naming roads and forwarding it to the Government for approval. Officials must strictly follow these procedures and not bypass norms when naming KRS Road after Siddaramaiah, he noted.

Citing an example, the former Mayor mentioned that the MCC had passed a resolution to rename Curzon Park, adjacent to the Mysore Palace after thespian Dr. Rajkumar and the Government subsequently approved the proposal.

Former Mayor Sandesh Swamy displaying the map to justify his claim that the KRS Road was indeed named as 'Princess Road' by the then CITB in 1921.

"During my tenure as Mayor, a large park in J.P. Nagar was named after Siddaramaiah following public demand. As per guidelines, there is no provision to name another road, park, or junction after the same individual once their name has already been commemorated in this way," he pointed out.

He further stated that in 2010-11 and 2011-12, the MCC had passed resolutions to name over a hundred roads and parks after distinguished personalities. For instance, the Outer Ring Road (ORR) was designated as S.M. Krishna Road.

However, this proposal was never officially implemented due to the negligence and apathy of officials. Expressing disappointment, he added that officials and the current generation seem to lack an understanding of the historical significance behind naming roads and landmarks.

Male Mahadeshwara Hill Museum opening stayed

Reason: 'Sevakartas' of sacred oil anointing ritual ignored without any representation

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (GA&BCT)- A stay order has been issued by the Karnataka High Court for the inauguration of the Museum under construction at Male Mahadeshwara Hill in Chamarajanagar District, citing the exclusion of the historical contributions of Mahadeshwara Swamy's oil anointing 'sevakartas'. The order follows a petition filed by Siddappa, a descendant of the traditional oil anointing 'sevakartas'.

Addressing a press conference at Pathrakarthara Bhavan yesterday, Siddappa highlighted that while the Museum, located near the 108-foot Mahadeshwara statue, is nearing completion, it fails to acknowledge the centuries-old tradition upheld by his family.

"Our family has been performing the sacred oil anointing ritual on the day before every new moon for generations. Despite this, the Museum does not include our history, which is deeply disappointing," he stated. He said that State Government must understand the need for inclusive representation of traditions and historical contributions in projects of cultural significance.

Siddappa revealed that repeated requests to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Chamarajanagar DC to include their family's history in the Museum went unanswered, compelling them to approach High Court.

"The Chamarajanagar DC recently made a vague and confusing statement about inaugurating the Museum soon. If this proceeds, it will amount to judicial contempt," he warned.

The oil anointing ritual, a sacred practice integral to the worship of Mahadeshwara Swamy, has been carried out by Siddappa's family for centuries.

The Museum, while detailing the history of Mahadeshwara Swamy, omits any mention of this vital tradition. Accompanying Siddappa at the press conference were Doddaswamy, Kalashetty, Mahadeva Shetty, and Shivaraj, who echoed his concerns and vowed to continue their legal battle to ensure justice for their legacy.

Congress Spokesperson says there is no proof

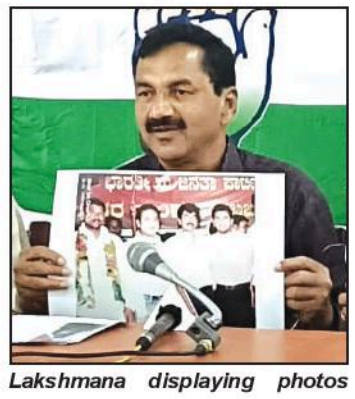
Lakshmana explained that Yaduveer, who was adopted by Pramoda Devi Wadiyar after the death of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar — elected as Mysore MP for four terms on a Congress ticket — is not the original member of the royal family.

He noted that Yaduveer's involvement with the BJP, which had opposed Wadiyar in past LS polls, was unfortunate. He also stated that there was no need to target Yaduveer, who he described as a political novice.

Additionally, Lakshmana addressed former MP Prathap Simha's changing stance on renaming KRS Road, labelling him as a publicity-focused leader with no genuine commitment to the people. He criticised Simha for his involvement in the Bidar contractor's death case, pointing out the BJP's unfair targeting of Minister Priyank Kharge, despite there being no direct connection between Kharge and the Contractor's death.



Lakshmana displaying photos purportedly showing some BJP leaders with the accused persons named in Bidar Contractor's suicidal death case.

City Congress President R. Murthy reiterated that if genuine records show KRS Road was named 'Princess Road,' then the name could remain. However, if no such records exist, the road should be renamed as 'Siddaramaiah Arogya Marga'. Congress leaders Shivanna, Bhaskar and others were present at the press conference.

P. Divin

Madikeri, Jan. 1 (PS&BCT)- The last rites of Kodagu soldier Palangotu P. Divin (28), who succumbed to injuries sustained in a Military vehicle accident in Poonch, Jammu & Kashmir, were performed with Military and State honours this morning.

Divin's mortal remains arrived at Terminal 1 of Kempegowda International Airport in Bengaluru last evening where Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar paid floral tributes and saluted the martyr on behalf of the Constituency. Personnel from the Southern Command of the Indian Army also paid their respects, escorting the remains to Aluru Siddapur in Somwarpet Taluk, Kodagu.

In Aluru Siddapur, the family and public paid their final respects at the Government School premises before the last rites were conducted on the family's land. Before this, the Kushalnagar Taluk Administration facilitated a public viewing of the soldier's body at the Kushalnagar Community Health Centre on Tuesday midnight and at the Government School grounds until this morning.

During the tribute ceremony, Tahsildar Kiran G. Gowraiah, local representatives and the Police Department paid floral tributes, while soldiers from the Army Supply Corps (ASC) and Maratha Light Infantry rendered the Military honours.

C.T. Ravi lodges complaint with DG&IGP; seeks action

Bengaluru, Jan. 1 (KMS&BCT)- BJP MLC C.T. Ravi has escalated his allegations of Police misconduct, filing a formal complaint yesterday with Karnataka's Director General and Inspector General of Police (DG&IGP) Alok Mohan.

A day earlier, Ravi had approached Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot, accusing the Police of harassment, ill-treatment and illegal detention following an incident in the Legislative Council.

Ravi claimed in his complaint that the Police, acting on the alleged directions of Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar and Minister Lakshmi Hebbalkar, had treated him like a 'contract killer' and attempted to orchestrate a 'fake encounter.'

Speaking to the media after visiting the DG&IGP Office, Ravi alleged, "The Belagavi Police detained me illegally, made me wander 400 kilometres in 17 hours and subjected me to harassment. This was done under the influence of powerful individuals with a motive to harm me."

Ravi accused the Police of operating beyond their jurisdiction, especially since the incident took place within the Legislative Council premises. "This is a blatant violation of Parliamentary Rules, the Constitution and the Law. Never in the history of our country has such an incident occurred," he stated.

The MLC further alleged that Shivakumar's supporters and Minister Hebbalkar's associates attempted to assassinate him. "They intended to kill me through a staged encounter. Their actions reflect complete disregard for the Law," he claimed.

In his detailed complaint to the DG&IGP, Ravi sought disciplinary action against the Belagavi City Police Commissioner, the Belagavi District Superintendent of Police and other officials involved in the alleged misconduct. He also demanded accountability for their "hired goon-like behaviour" and abuse of power.

"The Legislative Council Speaker has already given me a clean chit and the ADGP has been instructed to provide me protection up to Chikkamagalur district. Despite this, the Police acted unlawfully, undermining constitutional safeguards," Ravi said.

Leopard scare at Mysuru Infosys campus

Drone camera being used to trace wild animal: Forest Minister

Bengaluru/Mysuru, Jan. 1 (MTY&KS)- "Combing operation is being conducted at the Infosys campus in Mysuru where a huge leopard was spotted at about 4.30 am yesterday," said Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre in Bengaluru yesterday.

Speaking to media persons, the Minister said that as soon as the information about the presence of the wild animal was received, Leopard Task Force (LTF) team was despatched to the campus to capture the leopard.

There are 40 staff who are trained in capturing leopards and veterinarians in the LTF team. Wildlife Division Forest Officers are at the spot and are supervising the combing operation, Minister Khandre said.

Instructions to conduct combing operation immediately were given as it was confirmed about the presence of the leopard through the CCTV cameras, which had captured the movement of the leopard inside the campus. As Infosys management has instructed the employees to work from home there is no need to panic. The LTF team are ready with nets and tranquilliser darts. The campus is spread in about 350 acres with a few parts resembling small forests, which has become a challenge and the combing operation is being continued, the Minister said and added that steps have been taken to prevent the leopard from entering residential areas in the surroundings of Infosys.

Leopard Task Force (LTF) personnel using nets to barricade a portion of the pathway in their efforts to capture the leopard.

The Minister further said that a drone equipped with a thermal camera is being used to trace the wild animal and expressed confidence that the LTF team would capture the leopard soon.

Meanwhile, Deputy Conservator of Forests (DCF) – Wildlife Division, Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda said that as soon as the information about the leopard in Infosys campus was received, the spot was inspected. Though no one has seen the leopard, its movements have been captured in CCTV cameras.

As a preventive step, combing operation is being continued but the leopard was not traced, the DCF said and added that camera traps have been installed and even a cage has been placed to capture the leopard.

The DCF further said that a drone equipped with a thermal camera has also been used to inspect the campus. Twelve camera traps have been installed at places were the leopard was found moving about. Two cages have been placed and 10 ladders have been places at selected spots for the leopard to climb over the wall of the campus, the DCF added. The leopard is said to be 8 to 10 years old.

Attracted to chicken?

Though the leopard cannot get any food in the campus, it is suspected that the leopard may have got attracted due to the presence of country fowls inside.

There are country fowls in one part of the campus and it is in this part the CCTV has captured the leopard's movements. Hence a cage is also places in this part of the campus to trap the elusive leopard.

Meanwhile, the employees, who were told to work from home yesterday, have continued the same today also.

Though camera traps have been installed, none have captured photos of the leopard, but the Forest Department staff are still monitoring the area and combing operation is still being continued.

BJP leader hints at de-limitation of Assembly Constituencies before 2028 polls

Mysuru. Jan.1 (MTY&TRR)- "By the time next Assembly elections are held in 2028, there will be a de-limitation of Assembly segments and SC/ST communities will get more seats to contest the elections. Hence, members of Nayaka community must forge unity to get suitable political representations," said BJP leader M. Appanna.

He was speaking at a function organised by 'Maharshi Prabhuddha Vedike' at Rotary Auditorium on JLB Road recently to felicitate achievers from various fields.

"Nayaka community can get political power only when we maintain our unity. There will a de-limitation of wards before 2028 Assembly elections and it is likely that the number of Assembly Constituencies may reach around 300. SC/ST communities will get more number of reserved Constituencies. Both men and women of our community will get reservations. We need to organise ourselves and engage in areas like education, employment and politics. Nayaka community should daily remember persons like Maharshi Valmiki, Basavanna, Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar," he said.

Ruing the lack of unity among community members, he said though the community has more number of educated persons now, there is no unity among the community and as a result of this they are not getting prominent positions in politics.

"Other communities have exhibited unity. There is no proper political representation for our community members in South Karnataka. Though India has a significant population of ST communities, they are scattered," he regretted.

Cultural thinker Dr. Prashanth Nayak, former Chairman of Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation S.C. Basavaraj, community leaders J.M. Javara Nayaka, M. Ramachandra, Ningaraju N. Beltur, Venkatesh Kyatamaranahalli and others were present.

Politicians should be kept out of sports: Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar

Shivakumar

Bengaluru, Jan. 1 (VNS) - Cricketers should take charge of cricket keeping out politicians from the helm of affairs, said Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) here recently.

He was speaking during the release of former Indian cricketer Syed Kirmani's autobiography "Stumped: Life Behind and Beyond the Twenty-Two Yards" at M. Chinnaswamy Stadium in the city.

Stating that politicians should be kept out as they were dangerous to the sport, Shivakumar said it was his personal opinion and added that he had no idea as to why he, being a politician, was invited for the release of the autobiography.

Lauding Kirmani for his contributions to cricket, the Deputy Chief Minister said Kirmani was not only a good cricketer but a great human being too.

"I have not come here as Dy.CM but as a fan of Syed Kirmani. During my school days, I was a great fan of B.S. Chandrashekar, G.R. Vishwanath and Kirmani who have made both the State and Country proud," he said and added that in addition to these cricketers, other players like Brijesh Patel, Anil Kumble, Rahul Dravid among others had also made the State proud at the international level.

"Cricketers of yesteryears did not have the facilities that are being provided to present day cricketers. Despite facing hardship, they ensured to give their best for the country. Talented sportspersons will get opportunities, but to retain the place in the team needs a different personality for which Kirmani is a great example, DKS noted.

Former Indian Skipper Kapil Dev, Brijesh Patel, B.S. Chandrashekar, E.A.S. Prasanna, Anil Kumble, VVS Lakshman, Rahul Dravid, Infosys Founder N.R. Narayana Murthy and others were present.

State Election Commissioner calls for debate on social justice

Mysuru, Jan. 1 (SPN&DM)- Maintaining that social justice for all has remained a dream even after 75 years of independence, State Election Commissioner G.S. Sangreshi observed that everyone can get social justice only when Constitutional institutions are representative of all sections of the society.

He was speaking at the valedictory of National Conference on 'Changing dimensions of social justice in contemporary era' organised by Mysuru and Mandya Law Colleges in association with Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) at Mahajana Law College here recently.

Pointing out that if the Constitution has to become effective in full, then persons from all strata of society should be part of Constitutional institutions, Sangreshi, who had also served as the Principal District and Sessions Court Judge at Mysuru earlier, said social justice could not be achieved if only a handful of powerful and influential persons were part of them.

"There is social injustice not only in our country, but in other developed countries too, where caste, religion and racial discrimination is rampant. An egalitarian society can become a reality only if the Government ensures equality and equity for everyone. Law students can get a meaning for their profession only if they have social concerns. There are innumerable instances where Law graduates have gone to occupy top posts in the country. Students must understand that apart from being proficient in Law, they should also strive for social justice. Also, they should understand the problems of the poor," he said and called upon students to take the lead in rendering social justice to everyone.

Gadag-based Karnataka State Rural Development and Panchayat Raj University (KSRDPR) In-charge Vice-Chancellor Prof. Suresh V. Nadagoudar said 85 percent of nation's wealth is owned by 15 percent of Industrialists, while 85 percent of population has control over just 15 percent of nation's wealth which speaks volumes about social inequality. In such a scenario, it is important that all the deprived sections of the society get quality education, health and social security, he added.

He further said that 'Village Courts' (Grama Nyayalaya) must be established in every Gram Panchayat to ensure fair and speedy justice to rural population.

KSLU Vice-Chancellor Prof. C. Basavaraj expressed disappointment over the trend of owners asking about caste and credentials of prospective tenants while letting out their houses on rent or lease. Stating that this growing tendency does not augur well for the society, he opined that society can be changed only if we change for the better.

Several faculties of Law Colleges were feted on the occasion.

Mahajana Education Society Secretary Vijayalakshmi Muralidhar, Vidya Vikas Educational Institutions Secretary Kaveesh Gowda, Sarada Vilas Educational Institutions' R. Narasimha, Vidyavardhaka Educational Institutions' Shivalingaiah and others were present.

Narasipur with officials and instructed them to start preparations for the mega event which is will be held for 3 days in February.

Prior to this, the DC visited Kurubur village and inspected the controversial land. In earlier Kumbha Melas, Yaaga Mantap for performing Yagna, Homa and Havana and the dais for holding religious meetings and functions used to be provided at a place near the Triveni Sangama. Even Kuteeras (accommodation) for staying during the event were provided for religious heads near the Triveni Sangama. A temporary bridge was also built by the para-military personnel in front of Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy temple across Kapila river. Sand bags were placed to create a pathway to have the darshan of Sri Naduhole Basappa, the locals and officials apprised the DC at the meeting.

The DC directed officials to find a suitable place near the river for Yaaga Mantap and for holding religious meetings keeping in view of the fact that both KRS and Kabini are full and the scattered rainfall that is being witnessed, of late. He also asked PWD Engineers and ZP Executive Engineer to select 7-8 places for pilgrims to take the holy dip and ensure safety at these venues.

WORD OF THE DAY

Delectation

Pronunciation: dee-lek-TAY-shun (noun).
Meaning: Delectation is a formal word for a feeling of delight or enjoyment. It can also be used to refer to the source of such feelings.
Origin: Pleasure, delight, and enjoyment are all synonyms for the agreeable emotion that comes with the possession or expectation of something good or greatly desired. Why, then, use delectation, that not-so-familiar synonym? Because, as with most synonym groups, each word has its own subtle distinctions. More than all the others, delectation carries a whiff of beyond-the-usual amusement, indulgence, or deliciousness. If a treat is offered to you for your delectation, it is likely something worth taking time to savor. Just as delight and pleasure can refer not only to an emotion but also to the object or experience responsible for it (as in "her new song is an absolute delight" and "it's been a pleasure"), so can delectation. A tropical resort, for example, may offer vacationers an array of delectations — from poolside lounging to fancy cocktails.
Example: "Accept and appreciate the preferences of others. If you want to be a 'good' wine snob, work on 'tasting through someone else's mouth.' Who knows, you may have an epiphanic moment and discover a whole new lane of delectation — maybe you will find something you like that you did not expect to like." —Gus Clemens, The Lubbock (Texas) Avalanche-Journal, 9 Oct. 2024.

THE ODD WORD

Ranivorous

Eating frogs.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Run out of steam

Meaning: The phrase 'Run out of steam' means that one has lost the energy or enthusiasm to keep doing what they were doing.
Origin: This phrase originated from the idea of an old-fashioned steam engine that steadily slows and then halts when the fire that controls the boiler is too low to produce steam.
Example: "The student campaign ran out of steam when it became clear there was no way they would win a seat in the council."
